

Commodities and the Macroeconomy Workshop

Center for Applied Macroeconomic Analysis (CAMA) and Center for Applied Macro- and Petroleum Economics (CAMP)

Program

8:58-9:00	Renee McKibbin	Welcome
Chair of the session: Renee McKibbin
9:00-9:40	Leif Anders Thorsrud CAMP, visiting PhD scholar, CAMA, Crawford School	Boom or gloom? Examining the Dutch disease in a two-speed economy
9:40-10:20	Joaquin Vespignani University of Tasmania, CAMA	Commodity prices and BRIC and G3 liquidity: A SFAVEC approach
10:20-10:40	Morning Tea
Chair of the session: Ron Ratti
10:40-11:20	Jasmine Zheng CAMA, Crawford School, RBA intern	Transmission of shocks from the US and China to Australia
11:20-12:00	Benjamin Wong CAMA, Crawford School	How Do Oil Shocks Impact Inflation Expectations: Evidence from the Michigan Survey
12:00-12:40	Lunch
Chair of the session: Shuping Shi
12:40-1:20	Francesco Ravazzolo Norges Bank, BI Norwegian Business School, CAMP and CAMA	Business cycles in commodity producer countries
1:20-2:00	Drago Bergholt CAMP, visiting PhD scholar, CAMA, Crawford School	Foreign shocks in an estimated small open economy model
2:00-2:20	Afternoon Tea
Chair of the session: Francesco Ravazzolo
2:20-3:00	Tim Robinson RBA, CAMA	The relationship between bulk commodity and Chinese steel prices
3:00-3:40	Warwick McKibbin CAMA, Crawford School	Macroeconomic Shocks and Commodity Price Adjustment in General Equilibrium
3:40-3:42	Renee McKibbin	Wrap-up