

International Economic Flows: Energy, Finance, Diplomacy and Market Structures
27-28 November, 2019
RBA Training College, Kiribilli

Presenter: Hilde Bjornland, Norwegian Business School, "The Shale Oil Boom and the US Economy: Spillovers and Time-Varying Effects"

Presenter: Shuping Shi, Macquarie University, "Common Bubble Detection in Large Dimensional Financial Systems"

Presenter: Drago Bernholt, Norges Bank, "The Death and Resurrection of the US Price Phillips Curve"

Presenter: Thuong Nguyen, Australian National University, "Does Commercial Diplomacy Overcome Impediments to International Economic Flows: The Case of Australia"

Presenter: Francesco Ravazzolo, "Forecasting Energy Prices: A Large Global Dataset Sparse Approach"

Presenter: Gabriela Nodari, Reserve Bank of Australia, "Wealth and Consumption"

Presenter: Ragnar Tovik, NTNU Department of Economics, "The impossibility of efficiency under competitive markets, free entry and majority rule"

Presenter: Kate McKinnon, Australian National University, "Investigating the Drivers of International Cycle in Real Financial Asset Returns"

Presenter: Anthony Wiskich, Australian National University, "Output Spillovers from the Rise of China"

Presenter: Brian Trung Duc Tran, University of Sydney, "Commodity Uncertainty in a Small Open Economy: Theory and Empirics"

Presenter: Beili Zhu, Australian National University, "The Impact of Oil Shocks on the US Economy using a Large Bayesian VAR Model with Stochastic Volatility"

Presenter: Jamie Cross, BI Norges Business School, "The Role of Precautionary and Speculative Demand in the Global Market for Crude Oil"