Women in Macroeconomics Workshop III

Monday, 11th November 2024

Call for Papers:

We are delighted to announce that the Third Women in Macroeconomics Workshop will be held on Monday 11th November 2024 in Canberra.

Venue:

Brindabella Theatre
Crawford School of Public Policy
Australian National University.

Following the launch of this workshop in 2022 at the University of Sydney, and the second workshop in Melbourne in 2023 the third workshop will be hosted at the Australian National University in Canberra, 2024.

The objective of the workshop is to bring together women in macroeconomics, broadly defined. The workshop will provide an informal setting for participants to discuss their research. Early career researchers and PhD students are encouraged to participate.

Plenary Speaker: Dr Sarah Hunter

Dr Sarah Hunter is the Chief Economist and Assistant Governor (Economic) at the Reserve Bank of Australia, a position she has held since January 2024. In this role, she is responsible for the Bank's Economic Analysis and Economic Research departments and is the chief economic advisor to the Governor and the Board. Before joining the Bank, Sarah was the Head of Macroeconomic Conditions at the Commonwealth Treasury, where she oversaw the analysis of current conditions and economic forecasts and advised the Government on a broad range of economic and policy issues. Prior to that, she helped establish the Americas, Asia Pacific and Australian offices at Oxford Economics, progressing to the role of Chief Economist in Sydney, and was a Partner at KPMG in the Economics and Tax Centre. Sarah holds a DPhil from the University of Oxford, a master's in economics degree from the London School of Economics and a Bachelor of Economics degree from the University of Cambridge.
