Women in Macroeconomics Workshop III

Monday, 11th November 2024

Venue:

Brindabella Theatre
Crawford School of Public Policy
Australian National University

Following the launch of this workshop in 2022 at the University of Sydney, and the second workshop in Melbourne in 2023 the third workshop will be hosted at the Australian National University in 2024. The workshop will bring together women in macroeconomics, broadly defined and will provide an informal setting for participants to discuss their research. Early career researchers and PhD students are encouraged to participate.

2024 Plenary Speaker & Panel

Synergies between Policymakers and Academics

Plenary speaker:

Dr Sarah Hunter, Chief Economist and Assistant Governor (Economic) at the Reserve Bank of Australia

Panelists:

Victoria Anderson, Deputy Secretary, Small Business, Housing, Corporate and Law Group, Australian Treasury

Prof Renee Fry-McKibbin, Centre for Applied Macroeconomic Analysis, ANU

Jenny Wilkinson, Secretary, Department of Finance

This panel will explore how we can best combine the rigorous research and analytical skills of academic economists with the practical insights and experience of policymakers to shape good economic policy. The discussion will cover best practices for translating academic research into actionable policy, different expectations of policy institutions and universities, the role of public debate, overcoming communication differences, and designing joint research projects that address pressing economic issues while maintaining academic rigour. This session is designed for economists from academia and policymaking who are committed to leveraging their expertise and leadership to influence future economic policy.

Submission Deadline:

The deadline for submissions is 27th September 2024.

Submit papers to cama.admin@anu.edu.au.

The authors and participants will be notified by 11th October 2024.
